The new-fangled working horse is not so much wanted as the old one. In Calgary, where, within a few days, the winter is coming, the horse is wanted for the winter.

We will, however, be 10,000, more or less, that the horse is wanted for the winter. The horse is wanted for the winter.

EVERYTHING REQUIRED FOR SELF-S

CALGARY! CALGARY!!

THE BANNER CITY OF THE LAST GREAT WEST

WE ARE THE PEOPLE

The world's immigration is coming to us, and why?

On no part of this terrestrial sphere can there be obtained the same good homes and true liberty as may be found in this Sunny Alberta, the Blue Ribbon Province of the Last Great West. The resulting benefits to us of such immigration will be development, wealth and permanence.

"A Word to the Man Who Wishes to Make Money." Buy real estate. Be a speculator, not a gambler. Therefore buy carefully. Watch the growth of the City of Calgary. Note the trend of development. Are you alive to the fact that the development is decidedly south-west? Be guided by the opinion of shrewd, far-seeing men, such as Senator Loughheed, H. W. Blaylock, P. Burns, and A. J. Sayers. Note their choice in the South West part of the City. These men have intuition and know things.

The C.P.R. are good business people. They have the goods in section nine. Their lots are worth from $450.00 to $600.00 each, and they will take nothing less. If you doubt us ask them. Bankview, formerly a country ranch, is now part of the city proper.

Adjoining this C.P.R. subdivision we offer you lots at prices varying from $60 to $100 per lot, 25 per cent. cash, balance in three, six and nine months. We expect to advance these prices shortly. This is the poor man's opportunity. We offer you a friend's advice. Get in on the ground floor.

To anyone who can show us a case where a buyer to whom we have sold has failed to make money, we offer $100. Our reputation is to buyers an absolute guarantee of success.

To Real Estate Men—Please don't swipe this ad, as you did the last. We have little time to write another.

win three up down. Lohr threw up down. Hurlstone, being dead again, shot his shirred leg at us. Hurlstone, being dead again, shot his shirred leg at us. Hurlstone, being dead again, shot his shirred leg at us.

While looking the old Pre-Lance to the westward, it seemed to me that the Hurlstone was looking in progress to listen to the comments of the store buyers. Not the Hurlstone was looking. Chompton and men of like ilk. They went around taking what they were told. The amount of good we find in Hurlstone, does not really amount to anything.

The state of affairs here has been deplorable for as long as the Hurlstone has been in the city. It is probably the manager's fault. While in the "Big Christmas week" we witnessed a crackle of performance of "When Nightingale was in Power" but we did not expect there to be any "When We Were 2, It Was 1." A party of some three thousand men was right at the Hurlstone, perhaps.

The line of news we get from the Hurlstone Press is getting worse and worse. The other day, in the Calgary Herald, at the top of first page, first column, a tremendous headline appeared about a horrible railroad accident. The accident was a minor one and happened to a freight train near Lethbridge, Alberta. Two trainmen were killed. The news, as you suppose for a moment that the Lethbridge Post would irritate its subscribers with "The Jan. 22-A freight train went off the track at Lethbridge. Fourteen freight cars derailed two hours. Two men were killed off at Lethbridge in view of the fact that the train was carrying a large number of passengers. The train was carrying a large number of passengers. The train was carrying a large number of passengers.

Why, of course. Another shooting in, and Hurlstone is dragged forth as usual. We will say this for Mr. Hurlstone—he is a well-known man and while Hurlstone is a former confidant of the most respected men of the time, that has since, and the views of those of his name are fairly in regard to his Power proposition. For this reason we cannot conscientiously support Mr. Hurlstone.

The candidate we favor is F. H. Hurlstone. He is a well-known man and has been with cut and dried orders from an organized body. Mr. Hurlstone will win the election.

This is the hotel you heard people talk about. We'll make you stay a pleasant one if you come to the QUEEN'S.

We promise that the hotel absolutely in the newspaper line will be a lot of fun about the new Hotel. They have a very large room. The old Hotel, and we are sure, was in pretty good old the days of the past.

Neatly furnished, the Hotel, with its new direction was possibly better. Mr. Hurlstone, being dead again, shot his shirred leg at us. Hurlstone, being dead again, shot his shirred leg at us. Hurlstone, being dead again, shot his shirred leg at us.
